Lenten Services Begin at Seaside

Feb. 15 is Ash Wednesday and Seaside Community Church, 230th St. and Ocean Ave., Torrance, will again observe Lent with mid-week Lenten services on Wednesday evenings at 7:30 p. m. During the Ash Wednesday service, holy communion will be served. All Christians are invited to attend these Lenten services.
The film, "Life of Christ," first in a series on the living Christ, will be shown at this first service. It is based on a series of 75 water colors by Jacques Barosin. All movement is camera movement. The camera movement and change from picture to picture are so skillfully executed that the viewer's attention is held all of the time to an unbroken story of Christ's life.
Mr. Barosin, a refugee from the Nazis in World War II, escaped two times from concentration camps. He was hidden along with 27 other refugees in a small village of southern France. Under these circumstances he began to draw Bible characters and scenes.

CROWNED QUEEN—Mrs. C. B. Wiley was crowned queen of hearts at the Court of the King and Queen of Hearts, Valentine Ball last Saturday night sponsored by the Auxiliary to the Torrance Memorial Hospital. Mrs. Wiley sold the most tickets for the benefit held to aid the hospital. A Torrance resident, Mrs. Wiley is active in many social and civic affairs.

Mrs. Wiley Is Crowned at Ball

Mrs. Ruth Wiley was crowned Queen of Hearts at the Valentine Ball, Court of the King and Queen of Hearts, Saturday evening at the LaFayette Hotel in Long Beach.
Mrs. Wiley won her crown by selling the most tickets for the gala affair which was sponsored by the Torrance Memorial Hospital Auxiliary.
A cheer hour for friendly meetings; a delicious roast beef dinner; and delightful dance music combined to make the evening a splendid success.
Mrs. H. F. Heinlein, president of the Torrance Memorial Hospital Auxiliary, and her committee chairman can be proud of the wonderful evening they planned for their fun.

Miss Sonja Ottenbacher will serve as editor of the 1961 El Camino College yearbook, the Warrior, during the coming semester, adviser Eugene Uht announced today.
Miss Ottenbacher, a second semester freshman, is a graduate of Kent-Meridian High School in Washington, where she held positions on both the newspaper and yearbook staffs. A journalism major, she gained experience on the Warrior as assistant editor during the fall semester.
The position of assistant editor, vacated by Miss Ottenbacher, will be filled by Miss Vicki Reed. Miss Reed has served as feature and news editor of the college newspaper, the Warhoop. She will handle the faculty editor until an editor for that section is appointed.

Handing all photo orders is the task of Sondra Buffet. The Mira Costa graduate will file all negatives of pictures to be used in the publication. Working under Miss Buffet as photographers are Gerald Ragsdill, Ray Weber and Leonard Schutz. The photo staff members will take, develop and print all pictures for the book.

STUDENT SECTION
Largest section of the Warrior, students, is headed by Peggy Hundley, a graduate of South High. Miss Hundley will be assisted by Wecliser. With Redondo Union High newspaper experience, Miss Nancy Ann Bobo covers the organizations section.
Miss Violet Madrid takes over duties as activities editor. Also a graduate of Redondo Union High, Miss Madrid has held positions on the school paper.
Warrior staff will present the 1961 edition at an annual publications banquet to be held at the end of the spring semester.
Warrior has received acclaim for the last two years as top year-book publication in Southern California while simultaneously taking highest national honors.

SPORTS EDITOR
Taking over as sports editor is Jack Minzey, who also is acting as editor of the ECC Spring Sports Press Book. A recent graduate of Gardena High, Mike Meclisler undertakes finishing all art work for the publication. Gordon Wiebe heads the copy department. A resident of Torrance, Wiebe graduated from North High, where he served as assistant editor of the

Jackie Storinsky Wins First Prize

Del Vaughn, president; Rose Craig, secretary; and Lee Dawson, past president; were the judges for the Sales Kit Contest held last Wednesday at the regular noon meeting of the Torrance-Lomita Board of Realtors.
First prize was presented to Jacqueline Storinsky of Kek Realty for her outstanding sales kit.
Included in her kit were: listing agreements, deposit receipts, progress report on the growth of Torrance, shopping centers, smog conditions freeway information, amortization schedules, school information, a wonderful brochure made up in the form of a three act play which started with getting the listing until the concluded sale of the property, and many other valuable pieces of information. It is truly her office in kit form.
Jackie calls it her "walking desk" and states that she is ready to do business at the drop of a hat.
"It was a privilege to present the first prize and cash award to such an outstanding vivacious saleswoman," said Lee Dawson. "The salesmen will have to really start taking notes from saleswomen like Jackie Storinsky."

Local Residents Attend Brown's Sweetheart Ball

Among cadets enjoying the Valentine Sweetheart's Ball sponsored by the Disc and Diamond Club of Brown Military Academy were Cadet Lt. Gary A. Brooks, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Brooks of Torrance and Miss Jill Salm.
The gala affair was held last Saturday evening at the Glendora Woman's Club. The club was decorated in the Valentine theme under supervision of Mr. and Mrs. Cullen R. Weems, social directors at Brown, and Cadet Lt. John Mitchell. Several cadets assisted in decorating and preparing the club for the ball.
The cadets and their dates were greeted by the Cadet Battle Group commander, his date, and members of the Battle Group staff and their dates. These included Cadet Lt. Col. Garnett Williams of Harbor City; Cadet Lt. John Ellis; his date, Miss Kathryn Martin. Cadet Capt. John Dugan officiated with the introductions.
Miss Bonita Goldsmith was selected as cadet queen by a panel of judges composed of members of the staff, their wives and cadet officers. The queen was escorted by Cadet Lt. William Rogers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Rogers of San Pedro.
The cadets, their dates and special guests enjoyed a pleasant evening of dancing to the music of the Rhythm Gents dance band.

the May Co. South Bay store and at Hayden, Stone & Co. office, 19 Malaga Cove Plaza, Palos Verdes Estates.

SWEETHEART'S BALL—Pausing for a moment's rest during intermission time are Cadet Lt. Gary A. Brooks, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Brooks of Torrance; and his date, Miss Jill Salm. The couple attended the Disc and Diamond Valentine Sweetheart's Ball of Brown Military Academy in Glendora where Brooks is a student.
